HUD Alleges Discrepancies In CAP Audit

by Marileen Maher
News Editor
and
Susan Iry
Long Beach-Pass Christian
Bureau News Director

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has given the City of Pass Christian until Feb. 25 to answer findings resulting from an audit made by HUD of the city's Certified Area Program, the Sea Coast Echo learned Wednesday.

The findings were included in a report issued by HUD's Office of Audit and were sent to Mayor J.J. Wittmann by James S. Roland, area director, Jackson.

CAP was a federally funded program to rehabilitate houses and bring them up to building code standards. No new construction was allowed under the guidelines set by HUD.

Finding No. 1 of the report states that CAP rehabilitation activities were not administered in accordance with HUD requirements with questionable rehabilitation grants totaling $1,291,376.57.

"Specifically," the 19-page report says, "we noted instances of (a) rehabilitation grants being used to finance the cost of ineligible work, i.e. new construction and general improvements, (b) inadequate initial inspections, and (c) the files not containing evidence that interim, final, and supplemental inspections were performed."

"We scanned approximately 220, or about 50 percent, of the files applicable to rehabilitated properties and found that about 80 showed evidence that rehabilitation grant funds had been expended for ineligible new construction or general improvements."

Fourteen cases noted in the report in which grant funds were used to finance the cost of ineligible work such as new construction and general improvements follow with the address, amount of grant, and details of ineligible work included in bid document and work writeups:

1. 381 Hunter Ave., $3,500, install 38" chain link fence around property, approximately 406 feet with walk-in gate and car gate, $425.

2. 374 Clarence Ave., $3,500, construction of a 30' x 14' one bedroom frame house with bath and kitchenette. (Cost not itemized, $5,200)

3. 394 Hunter Ave., $3,500, construction of a 30' x 24' two bedroom frame house with bath and kitchenette. (Cost not itemized, $7,100)

4. 201 Market St., $3,500, construction of a 30' x 14' one bedroom frame house with bath and kitchenette. (Cost not itemized, $5,725)

5. 357 Saucier St., $3,500, erect wood shed canopy over trailer (mobile home) with 3' overhang on sides and ends. Install 6' x 15' porch with concrete floor, aluminum awning, concrete steps, iron columns and rail. (Cost not itemized, $3,500)

Install 8' x 12' concrete floor porch, paint and screen in, aluminum awning and concrete steps. Erect fence 3' high with one car gate and one pedestrian gate, to be 110' x 110' by 100' x 100'. Paint wood on trailer canopy and lattice work. (Cost not itemized, $3,500)

7. 371 Mercer Ave., $2,300, install aluminum storage shed on concrete slab-anchored down. (Cost not itemized, $2,300)

8. 373 Woodman, $3,460, install manufactured aluminum curtain wall around trailer (mobile home). Construct 8'x15' screen porch on front of trailer. Erect wood canopy over trailer with 3' overhang on sides and 2' overhang on ends. Install 10'x10' metal utility shed on 4" concrete slab. Install 48" chain link fence around 100'x58' lot. KING NEREUS VII AND QUEEN DORIS VII

Krewe Of Nereids Stages Carnival Ball

Echoes of Famous Streets were recalled when the Krewe of Nereids presented its seventh annual Bal Masque Friday night in St. Joseph's Memorial Hall with John M. Gallagher reigning as King Nereus VII.

Queen Doris VII, whose identity along with the identities of her majesty and Krewe remain a secret, was presented by the Ball Captain. She was crowned in an imported French peau de soie heavily beaded in fleur-de-lis design. Her white lace medallion collar embellished with beaded motifs, was edged with tulle. The Krewe of Nereids crest, embroidered with sequins and rhinestones in colors of green, pink and gold, centered her white velvet mantle which was edged with white ermine. A fleur-de-lis rhinestone designed crown and matching scepter completed her ensemble.

Pages, Leslie Jean Bienvenu, Margaret Martiel Caruso, Lenora Marie Kelly and Christy Lynn McNeal, wore traditional white peau de soie page costumes enhanced with a fleur-de-lis design on the front and back of the capes. Their page hats of silver sequins were topped with white feathered plumes.

King Nereus' cape of white velvet, edged in ermine, was trimmed with beaded designs similar to the queen's.

Maid Holland, escorted by her duke, Gerald Boos, represented Tulip Windmill Festival with echoes from Schuyler Strasser. She wore a Dutch gown of yellow velvet and white lace. Sequin and rhinestone tulip appliques bordered the skirt. The traditional Dutch headpiece completed her costume.

Maid Canada, with Robert Wyatt as her duke, depicted Winter Carnival De Quebec with echoes from Saint Joseph Street. She was costumed in a blue velvet, white lace and net gown trimmed with sequins and rhinestones. Her headpiece represented a large snowflake accented with icicles and white feathered plumes.

Maid Italy, escorted by duke Eldon Gilly, portrayed Festival of the Vineyards with echoes from Via Camillo. She wore a conventional Roman style gown in shades of fuchsia and purple featuring a chiffon mantle adorned with triangles and grapes designed of gold sequins and stones. Her tall gold-sequined headpiece was trimmed with sequined grapes.

Maid Thailand, escorted by her duke, H. Phillip Williams, depicting Ritual of the Fire Worshipers with echoes from Li Tien Wu Square, was crowned in shades of green shimmer and lame

Board To Tour County Roads

County supervisors are traveling all county roads on an inspection tour today as a result of complaints from two residents at a Monday board meeting.

Mrs. Marie Strong told supervisors that when her automobile bogged down in an 18-inch mud hole on a county road near Bay Side Park last week she suffered not only expense due to towing and repairs to the car but received minor injuries as well. Mrs. Strong stated that she had attempted unsuccessfully to contact Board President Dolph Kellar. Supervisors Jerry Ladner and Bully Zengaringer for help and finally could only reach Supervisor James Travirca.

Mrs. Strong asked the board for a commitment on some definite action to improve road conditions which she said had been going on "too long". Another resident complained that he was unable to reside in his Bay Side Park home because of impassable roads leading to the house.

Kellar reminded the board that the grand jury had directed supervisors to make a tour of all county roads at least once a year and added that perhaps this would be a good time to do so. A motion was passed for the entire board to travel the county roads Thursday, starting at 9 a.m.

In an unrelated matter, Ladner was rapped by other supervisors when Travirca asked Ladner for a public explanation of his actions in directing Mississippi Game and Fish Commission personnel to stock federal fish in two private, posted ponds in his beat, which allegedly belong to Ladner's relatives.

Travirca referred to a board resolution offered by Ladner and adopted in July requesting fingerling fish for restocking "public waters of the county for the benefit of local sportsmen".

Travirca, who was unable to attend the controversial restocking incident, told Ladner, "I was criticized everywhere I went last week and I didn't know anything about it." Ladner retorted that he had met with the governor, the attorney general and the Game and Fish director in Jackson about the incident and that all had assured him that he had done nothing illegal.

Band Hall Will Be Relocated

Bay-Waveland public school trustees directed Superintendent of Education Joseph McCullough to seek other facilities for re-locating the high school band hall following a report from architect Fred Wagner and Bay Fire Chief Richard Fayard, at a Monday night meeting.

The report came as a result of an inspection tour of the band hall, presently located on the third floor of the Junior High School building. In the report, Wagner and Fayard pointed out that the Junior High building is a fire hazard due to the age and type of construction of the building therefore unsafe conditions should be avoided wherever possible.

Two recommendations were made concerning the band hall; the first calling for installation of fire escapes at each end of the room, leading to the ground floor, the second to relocate the band room to the ground floor. Installation of fire escapes was not considered feasible, Wagner continued, considering the infrequent use of the room as well as the age of the building.

The consensus of the board was that the latter recommendation be followed and McCullough was asked to present suggestions for relocation at the next board meeting.

Representatives of Moore and Powell Certified Public Auditors discussed with the board a quarterly audit of the school system's books, as a supplementary service for the present auditor, Robert Hoffman. Action on the matter was delayed pending further discussion among trustees.

VOTE FOR AND ELECT HENRY J. PREVOU CIRCUIT CLERK HANCOCK COUNTY

Special Election
Sat. Feb. 17th, 1973

QUALIFIED - HONEST - CAPABLE

Born 44 years ago in Bay St. Louis, Hancock County, son of Rosie Colson & Eddie Prevou. Married to the former Margaret Cook and have three children, Becky, Henry Jr. (Chip) and Lynette. Attended St. Stanislaus College and Bay High School. World War II Veteran. Served 3 years US Army Reserve. Served 9 years in Mississippi National Guard (Resigned as Master (First) Sergeant). Retired from U.S. Civil Service June 20, 1972, with 18 years of service with the USN C.B. Center, Gulfport, MS - Last 5 years as an inspector and was responsible for the upkeep, location, condition and records of millions of dollars of equipment. Was twice awarded the Sustained Superior Achievement Award for outstanding service. Served as First Vice-President of the American Federation of Government Employees Union and am still an active member. I honestly feel that as your CIRCUIT CLERK I can serve Hancock County as well as I have my Government. I am limited as to the amount of income I can earn without jeopardizing my pension; therefore, I have a plan to use money earned above this amount to set up a repair fund for the courtroom in our Court House. THINK ABOUT THIS. Has anyone ever offered to give part of their salary back to the County? Well, I offer this to you now. Please consider me when you cast your vote for the office of CIRCUIT CLERK.

Your Vote Will Be Sincerely Appreciated.

CORRECTION

In a February 8 article titled Parents Question Title IV, concerning the county school system program, Mrs. Shirley Shubert was incorrectly listed as having "been hired as a bus driver for the day care program". County bus drivers do not pickup children in that area.

Adorée Shuttle

St. Valentine's Day is a time for spreading love -- for sending flowers, candy and cards with rhymes composed by graduates of the Famous Writers School. It is the one day of the year we set aside to tell friends and loved ones how much they are appreciated. The sending of Valentine cards is not confined to private citizens. The Sea Coast Echo has uncovered the fact that Valentines are also sent BY public officials -- and TO public officials.

In keeping with our tradition of bringing all the facts to the people, we have reprinted below some of the more famous "love notes".

From the Board of Supervisors to Don Breland (Beach Road contractor):

Roses are red,
Violets are gold;
Where, oh where
Is our new Beach Road?

From the Port and Harbor Commission to Stennis Field Flying Service:

Our spirits are soaring,
Our emotions are spent;
Fulfill our desires,
And send one month's rent.

From Bayside Park residents to Supervisor Jerry Ladner:

You are our friend,
You never say no;
We're in a rut,
Will you pay for the tow?

From Jerry Ladner to the Mississippi Game, and Fish Commission:

The fish arrived,
The press is buzzin';
There's only one problem,
I forgot my OTHER cousin.

From Bay St. Louis Fire Chief Richard Fayard to Commissioner William Frisbie:

The fire came,
We were ready to go;
We plugged into the hydrant,
But there was no H<sub>2</sub>O

From Bay St. Louis Commissioner Andre Arceneaux to the Council-Manager Committee:

This card I send,
Because my heart is sobbing;
Don't rock the boat,
It's my job you're robbing.

From Waveland officials to Waveland residents:

We're tearing up the streets,
Under competent direction,
So please be ready:
For our own "French connection".

And finally this gem from "Red Beans and Rice" to all public officials:

You always keep us laughing,
By raising such a fury;
But we're sitting back and waiting,
For the Federal Grand Jury.

Board Responsible For Beach Road

By now, Hancock County residents need no reminders that it has been three years since Camille destroyed the Beach Road.

Nor do they need to be reminded that Breland Construction began work on the Beach Road in March 1972.

These two facts are uppermost in everyone's minds. The time is now long past for giving Mr. Breland the benefit of the doubt. It is obvious that work has stopped on repairing that controversial thoroughfare.

This paper demands that the Board of Supervisors provide answers to the following questions:

Where is Mr. Breland? More importantly, where are his work crews?

Just exactly when will the road be finished?

If bad weather has stopped work on the road, why can't Breland at least grade the area from Carroll to De Montbuzin?

Although the work is being performed with money from the federal government, the final blame ultimately rests with our five supervisors. A forceful, more interested board would have had the job done by now.

We suggest that every Hancock County resident who reads this editorial call at least one supervisor today—right now—and demand that something be done.

The number is 487-6012.

Without public outrage, the road may continue in its present condition.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,

As a concerned citizen and a member of the Council-Manager Committee, I would like to thank the Echo and Mayor Carver for his thoughtful letter last week. For the very same reason pointed out in this letter, a dislike of our present three-man form of government, is why each member of the Council-Manager Committee has investigated, studied, and discussed many forms of city government and chose the Council-Manager system to be the most ideal for our community due to its size and economy.

However, in order to set the record straight, I would like to point out some discrepancies in Mayor Carver's letter.

1. Our present form of government is on the decline. Council-Manager systems are rapidly increasing each year. 48 percent of all municipalities of 5,000 population and over in the U.S. are governed by the Council-Manager system.

2. The figure of 5 Mississippi Cities under a Council-Manager system is 29 percent too low. Apparently, this system has increased in popularity since the statistics were compiled that Mayor Carver used, and it's growing each year.

3. I definitely agree, "that each and every voter make every possible effort to determine for himself or herself whether or not a change will be wise and prudent." In fact, I implore the citizens of Bay St. Louis, for opposed and undecided toward the Council-Manager system, to attend the public meeting scheduled for Monday, March 5-7:30 p.m. at Bay Jr. High.

LEARN THE FACTS AND MAKE YOUR OWN DECISION.

Yours truly,
Jack McComiskey

DEAR SIR:

I am writing to you in hope you can find space to print this letter in regards to the roads in the rural areas of Hancock County, particularly beat one.

A good many of our heavily traveled roads are almost beyond passable due to large holes in the roads and the roads not being graded properly. We have contacted the supervisor of beat one, Mr. Jerry Ladner, about this and he has done nothing about it.

On February 6, a group of residents appeared before Mr. Ladner, at the supervisors office, complaining about this situation and he told us he had nothing to do with dirt roads in the Bayside Park subdivision, and that the developer is totally responsible for the upkeep of these roads. Now if this is true, and the county is not to keep these roads up, nor do they have an obligation to the residents of the subdivision, then why are we required to pay the county taxes? In plain English, we get nothing from the supervisor, no garbage collection, no roads upkeep, nothing.

Now our school buses are having difficulty in getting in here to pick up the school children. Most of the bus drivers are having much difficulty in so far that they cannot pass on some of the roads, and bog the buses down on other roads. Now if what Mr. Ladner says is true, and that the county is not liable for the upkeep, again I say, why are we being taxed on our property by the county?

For instance, I called Mr. Ladner last week before we appeared before him, complaining about the condition of a county road, not in Bayside, which runs south off of Highway 90, and alongside my business. There were two large holes in this road, cars were dragging bottom, to use the road. Mr. Ladner told me he would fix the holes. When we appeared at the meeting, one week later, the same condition, even worse, still existed. It was brought up again at the meeting. Mr. Ladner said he would fix the road the very next morning, Wednesday Feb. 7. The next morning, a pickup truck and several men came out to fix the road. That afternoon, thinking the road was fixed, I went down the road to go my business. It was fixed alright, I sank down right in the middle of the road with my car, to the extent I could not open the doors on the drivers side of my car and had to crawl out on the other side. I walked on up to the shop, called for Mr. Ladner, and after the second call, was told he was in Jackson. I tried to get some of the other supervisors, but to no avail. I did finally get hold to Mr. Travirca, the beat five supervisors, who came out to see my car sitting tilted to one side in the middle of the road. I called the Watchdog Committee, The Sea Coast Echo, and a reporter from the Daily Herald, who got some pictures of the car and statements from several residents who had also been present at the meeting with Mr. Ladner. I finally called an attorney.

I had to have a wrecker from Mr. Pernicaro's to come get my car out. It was sunk approximately 18 inches down in the road.

I think it's time for the people to wake up and face the facts. What is Mr. Ladner and the other supervisors going to do about this situation?

Thanking you for your time and space Mrs. Marie Strong Citizen, Taxpayer, and Voter

To the Young Minds of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County:

This letter, a product of much frustration and thought, will not be liked. It will not be liked by the land barons and political bosses of the area. In general it will not be liked by the parties responsible for making Bay St. Louis and Hancock County what it is, a sleepy little place that is drying up, instead of what it could be; a booming town and a county capitalizing on the potential gold mine that we have in tourist trade and economic expansion.

On the front page of last week's Echo is a most striking example of what I am talking about. Pete Fountain, because of local pressure from the controlling few, has decided not to build the massive hotel-motel-convention-entertainment complex he had planned. He is instead, building a (9) nine story apartment condominium, but first he has to obtain a variance from a (5) five story structural limit (how's that for putting a ceiling on progress?) from the Bay St. Louis Board of adjustments. The local barons have succeeded in two things: (1) They have eliminated a first class tourist attraction that would bring tourist (not "transient") money into Bay St. Louis (the average tourist dollar changes hands 4-5 times here); (2) By building the condominium another tragic loss will come to the area. The people that would think about building vacation residences here will just buy into the condominium. This will bring financial losses in property taxes, work lost by construction firms, potential jobs, etc. Just think of the employment potential in the work force necessary to operate and maintain the motel! Let's just hope that the invisible hand doesn't squash Mr. Fountain's attempts all together!

Every four years the same political bosses, despite political promises of reform, manage somehow to get their hand-picked candidates into office. New faces, yes, but it's the same thing just warmed over. The results—a big NOTHING!

The average person in the area just lays back and says "It's a real shame, but that's just the way it is around here" and the hum drum little place keeps getting more hum drum! Well I don't consider myself to be average and I say "Yes, it's a shame but that's not the way it has to be at all if we do something about it!"

On Tuesday, March 13 there is a special election to vote for a council-manager system of government for the city of Bay St. Louis. Normally in an election of this sort, the voter turnout is light because people don't care enough to get involved and normally the controlling few get the election to go their way. What we need is for you and your friends to get out and vote. If you're not registered, register NOW! If you can honestly look yourself in the mirror and say you're satisfied with Bay St. Louis the way it is and has been, vote no. But if you want a change that will make a real business out of city government (as it should be) vote yes. If you want to know more, come to the panel discussion at Bay Jr. High auditorium on March 6th.

Young minds, what I am saying is that we are the ones who are going to live here and raise a family here in 20 years. The five percent that control the area will be dead and gone so they don't care what it will be like then! Let's start now so in 20 years we will all be benefitting from an area of prosperity, a prosperity that we will have created. It is time for the silent minority (the land barons and political bosses) to be ousted and taken out of control permanently. It is time for the "silent majority" (You & I) to speak up and take power as a Democracy should be. Roll up your sleeves and get involved. YOUR future is in YOUR hands and YOUR mind. We can sink or we can swim. It's up to you, people, it's up to you.

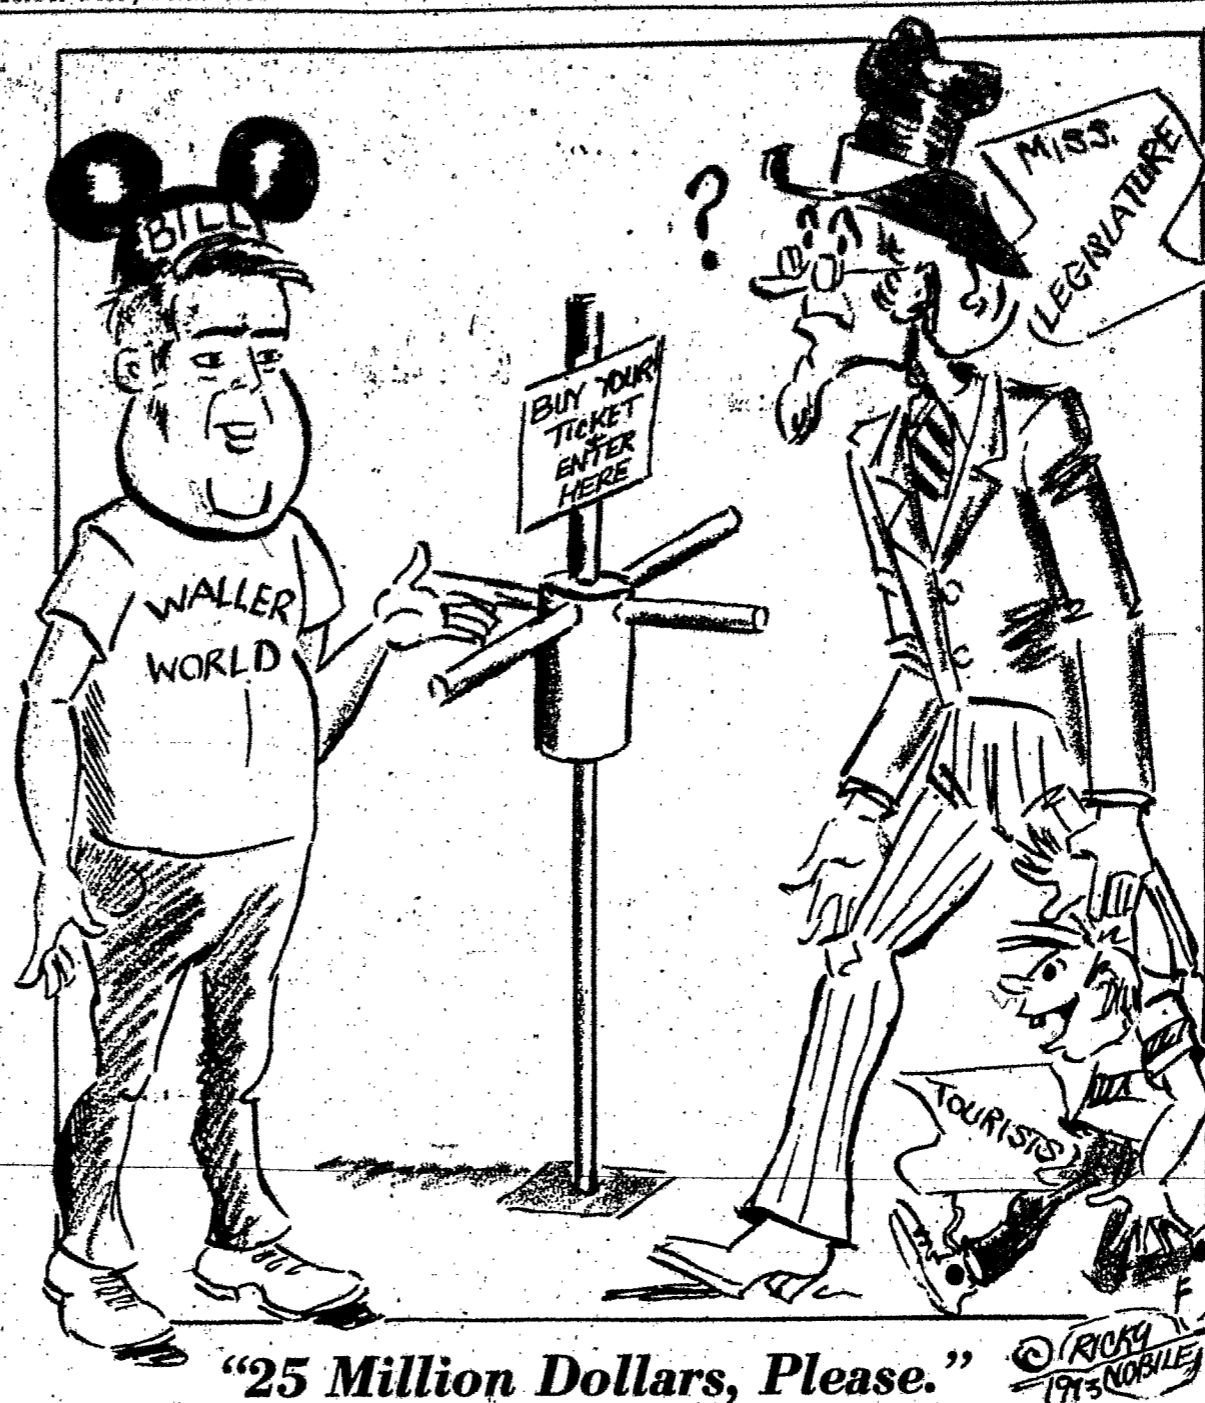

Sincerely,
S. Pat Murphy, Jr.

DEAR SIR,

Your article about Pete Fountain building an apartment complex was a surprise. After discussing this with many friends we are wondering what is wrong with "transients" who could afford to stay at a Motel that he would build.

I have travelled quite extensively and have never felt that I was undesirable and "transients" are what have made other Motels a success. Don't know who the concerned citizens might be but they should think it over. Just what is going to buy the Condominiums?

Just what do you think is going to happen at Jackson Ridge, it will be a haven for undesirables.

"25 Million Dollars, Please."

Chamber Report

By Sylvia McComiskey
Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Manager

The Chamber responded this week to 23 written requests for information on Hancock County and approximately 35 telephone requests for information of various sorts.

The Mississippi State Park Commission has officially adopted the name of "Buccaneer State Park" for the Jackson Ridge Project. It will henceforth be known in all ways, as Buccaneer State Park.

The Board of Directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting at the Chamber office Tuesday night and tentative plans for Committee projects were laid out. The projects will be set and Committees appointed at the February Regular Board Meeting set for Tuesday, February 27. All Chamber members are encouraged to participate in Chamber projects for this year and, if any members have ideas they feel should be included in Committee activities, please contact the Chamber office. REMINDER: All Chamber Board Meetings are open to the general membership. Show your interest and attend.

The Board of Directors approved the appointment to the Board of Directors of the following people: Admiral Edward F. Beyer, Dr. Michael Smith, Brother Pierre St. Pierre and George diBenedetto. These men will complete the Board for 1973.

We need Pete Fountain's Motel and Restaurant and I feel sure it will bring people to this area after I-10 is opened 5 miles from Highway 90.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Herbert M. Wise

Dear Sir:

Perhaps a certain segment of our society reading this, would dub me an odd ball, a rebel, anarchist, introvert, schizo, or paranoid, simply because I have the courage to disagree with the collectivist trend, and expansive government interference, with the private lives of individuals and their right of choice. It galls me to hear our citizen voters say, "we can't do anything." If only they would realize these despotic power hungry politicians and their puppets, are being supported by the taxpayers.

There is power in numbers, and there may come time, when those of us in subjection, and servile obedience, will drop our silent docile attitude and copy the aggressive tactics of unionism or the "non violent" pattern of Blacks. I hope we shall never resort to such methods, but righteous anger may not easily be subdued, which recalls to memory the old Biblical prophecy, "the last shall be first and the first shall be last."

Sincerely,
Mrs. Eleanor Everett McFie

The "personal contact" phase of the 1973 Membership Drive will get underway Friday, February 16 at 7:30 a.m. with a "Kick-Off" Dutch Treat Breakfast at the Ramada Inn, Highway 90, Bay St. Louis. Anyone interested in participating is urged to attend.

Legislative Report

by EARL "BUCK" LADNER
STATE REPRESENTATIVE
HANCOCK COUNTY

Most of the 1,968 bills before the State Legislature as of Monday will die because of a February 12 deadline for reporting out of committee, bills originating in the House. The deadline does not apply to revenue, appropriations and local and private bills.

The following are bills which are presently on the House Calendar awaiting floor action:

- (1) House Bill 403-Establish office of public defender for State Penitentiary.
- (2) House Bill 710-Provide method for appeal for indigent defendants in Civil causes in Justice of Peace Court.
- (3) House Bill 767-Increase penalty for littering along roads.
- (4) House Bill 574-Divorce proceeding may be heard in vacation.
- (5) House Bill 216-Empower Justice of Peace Courts to suspend sentence, suspend execution of sentence and place defendants on probation.
- (6) House Bill 165-Establish school of dentistry at Medical School.
- (7) House Bill 654-Institution of higher learning establish school of Veterinary Science at Mississippi State.
- (8) House Bill 649-Increase compensation for jurors and bailiffs.

In response to many inquiries, let me clarify the fact that I sponsored a bill making it LEGAL to hunt and fish on Sunday. The bill passed thus changing a law which had been in effect over 100 years.

Due to the county election Saturday, I will not meet with the public at Scadid's.

Volunteers Needed For Model Program

More than 3,100 senior volunteers in Harrison, Hancock and Jackson Counties have benefited from the service of volunteers since the implementation of the Senior Citizens Area-wide Model Project in March, 1972. Numerous individuals, church organizations, civic clubs, business firms, Kessler Air Force Base, Gulfport Seabee Base, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have rallied to assist the senior citizens in coastal communities. Volunteers have given generously of their time to provide special transportation for those needing daily hospital treatments, appointments with doctors, and many other needs. Without the volunteers many senior citizens would not be able to remain within their homes.

The daily delivery of a nutritious, hot meal at noon by volunteers has been a positive factor towards improvement of health among the elderly, and also provides social contact with many who otherwise would not be in touch with anyone for many days or weeks. Volunteers have provided many hours of happiness through recreation for senior citizens. Many have worked in groups or teams to paint or repair homes, correct plumbing and mow lawns for those who were either physically or financially unable to perform these duties.

The area-wide model project has recorded a total of 60,072 volunteer hours during the past 12 months, which encompasses the following: transportation, information and referral, nutrition (Meal-On-Wheels), recreation, counseling, health and homemakers.

"A goal of the project for 1973 is a well organized telephone reassurance system and a widespread 'friendly visitor' program. Volunteers may contact the Information and Referral offices in any of the three coastal counties, or the Central Administrative Office in Gulfport, Suite 204, Security Building," according to Mrs. Gwen Gollotte, project coordinator.

Ladner-Warren Vows Exchanged

Miss Cynthia Ann Warren, daughter of Frank Warren and Mrs. Earline Hoda, Rt. 1, Pass Christian, became the bride of Clark Michael Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ladner, Rt. 1, Pass Christian, at 1 p.m., January 27 at Infant of Prague Catholic Church, White Cypress Community.

Rev. Pierre Hisey, S.T., performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked by baskets of white gladiolus and poinsettias.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Curtis Deschamps, the bride wore a formal gown of cloud white silk organza. Rembrided Alencon lace overlaid the lifted bodice and enhanced the Edwardian collar and Camelot sleeves. Matching lace bordered the deep flounce at the hemline. Her full length mantilla of illusion etched in Alencon lace, fell from a lace covered cape. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a orchid.

Stanislaus To Present 'Oklahoma'

St. Stanislaus High School will present the play "Oklahoma," a musical by Rogers and Hammerstein, on February 23-24. The performances will be staged in St. Augustine's Auditorium at St. Stanislaus Seminary in Bay St. Louis and will begin at 7:30 each evening. The producer for this production is Mrs. Beverly Zimmerman; the director is Burt Barrett; and the music is under the direction of Davis Williams.

This production of "Oklahoma" is based on Lynn Riggs' "Green Grow the Lilacs." The original production ran for a total of five years and nine weeks on Broadway — the longest run of any musical production up to that time. In 1955, it was adapted for the movies. The setting for the play is the territory of Oklahoma prior to its becoming a state; and the story is based on the rivalry between the farmers and the cowhands.

To The Voters Of Hancock County, Mississippi:

I am again using this means to remind you of the Special Election for Circuit Clerk which will be held this Saturday, February 17, 1973 in all precincts of Hancock County to fill the vacancy due to the death of my late father, Lamar Otis.

I am a life-long resident of Hancock County, being a native of Logtown, the son of Lamar Otis and Mrs. Betty Weston Otis. I have one daughter, Carolyn Otis Snyder. I was a resident of Logtown until I had to move when the NASA Test Site moved to Waveland where I lived until last August when I married the former Ruby Green, daughter of John D. Green, since that time we have lived in Logtown.

I worked as part-time Deputy Circuit Clerk for a my full-time employment in this office more than eight years responsibilities of the office, and feel that I am qualified to follow my only promise to the voters is to continue to follow my father's policies to the best of my ability. I feel that anything less than this would be a betrayal of the trust in me.

I regret that I have been unable to call on each and every one of you personally due to the fact that I work at the office, but I ask each of you to consider this support. Your vote and influence in my behalf will be appreciated.

To The Voters Of Hancock County, Mississippi:

I am again using this means to remind you of the Special Election for Circuit Clerk which will be held this Saturday, February 17, 1973 in all precincts of Hancock County to fill the vacancy due to the death of my late father, Lamar Otis.

I am a life-long resident of Hancock County, being a native of Logtown, the son of Lamar Otis and Mrs. Bette Weston Otis. I have one daughter, Carolyn Otis Snyder. I was a resident of Logtown until I had to move when the NASA Test Site moved to Waveland where I lived until last August when I married the former Ruby Green, daughter of John D. Green, since that time we have lived in Logtown.

I worked as part-time Deputy Circuit Clerk for my father's full-time employment in this office more than eight years. My only promise to the voters is to continue to follow my father's policies to the best of my ability. I feel that anything less than this would be a betrayal of the trust placed in me.

I regret that I have been unable to call on each and every one of you personally due to the fact that I am working at the office, but I ask each of you to consider this my personal appeal to you for your support. Your vote and influence in my behalf will be appreciated.

14. 339 Rosehart Ave., $2,925, in chain link fence around property, walk-in gate and car gate, $549. B 4'x6' porch at side entrance, $50.

The report points out that 22 cases are cited in this finding, in which the HUD Area Office review cases and are not considered as representative of all the deficiencies and discrepancies on all properties included in the HUD Area Office review cases to determine the amount of total cost "which were definitely ineligible for payment from Federal rehabilitation grant funds," and asks that the city of Pass Christian be required to refund all ineligible grant payments with the possible exception of those that may have been incurred as a direct result of "liberal" interpretations by HUD site representatives during the early stages of the program.

According to the report, Program Administrator E.M. Craig, employed by the General Electric Company, stated that he was aware that HUD regulations had been "stretched" in some cases. He also stated that interpretation of the regulations by HUD site representatives was more liberal during the early stages of the CAP but later became more conservative, especially after establishment of the HUD Area Office. He said he felt HUD site representatives were generally aware of what was being done and therefore believed he had HUD's tacit approval.

In Part b. of the first finding, the report terms initial inspections of rehabilitation projects as "inadequate" as these reports did not identify the nature of each deficiency listed. Consequently the nature of each deficiency was not identified in the work writeup. If the initial inspection reports had been effectively utilized, the eligible work items such as those listed in part a. of the finding would not have been included in the bid document, the report states.

In initial inspection reports prepared by the city's inspectors did not identify each deficiency as a code violation, in part code violation, or a general improvement.

For each of the first finding states there is no evidence in the files to show that interim, final, or supplemental inspections were performed by the city. Chapter 20 of the Rehabilitation Financing RAA Programs Handbook states that the city should make inspections of rehabilitation work financed with grants and make, as necessary, (1) compliance inspections during rehabilitation to assure that the work is being completed in accordance with the contract; (2) a final inspection to determine that the work has been completed in accordance with the contract; and (3) a supplemental inspection within 60 days after the issuance of the Certificate of Final Inspection to determine if defects and inadequacies in the rehabilitation have shown up after the final inspection.

The HUD Area Office advised Craig in a letter dated March 29, 1972, that it had received numerous complaints from along the Gulf Coast concerning the quality of rehabilitation work performed in the Certified Area and Code Enforcement Programs and that the cause of such complaints was attributable to inadequate inspections—particularly final inspections.

Finding No. 2 of HUD's Report of Audit states that questionable contracting procedures relating to the awarding of contracts to contractors for rehabilitation work resulted in excessive disbursements of grant funds totaling $7,004.50.

A breakdown of the 22 projects studied shows that contracts were awarded to other than low bidders, were paired to allow funds to be shifted from one property owner to benefit another property owner, and were awarded to contractors in excess of bid amounts.

The report shows that $2,299 were shifted from five property owners to benefit five other property owners. This was done by combining contractors' bids for rehabilitation of structures in pairs and awards being made to the contractor making the lowest bid in total for both structures.

Craig, according to the report, could offer no explanation as to why contracts were awarded to other than the lowest bidder or in excess of amounts bid. He said he was aware that contracts had been paired and funds shifted from one property owner to benefit another. He stated that had this not been done, the benefiting party's property could not have been brought into compliance with code standards.

When contacted as to the substance of HUD's report Wednesday, Mayor Wittmann told the Echo he preferred not to discuss the findings because the report was confidential.

He did say that the audit was conducted during August.

No answers to the findings have yet been formulated, he said, pending extended conferences with G.E., the administering agency of the CAP from its beginning on Dec. 19, 1969, until its termination on July 14, 1972.

"We still have plenty of time," Mayor Wittmann said.

Craig is now employed with G.E. in Poughkeepsie, New York.

has been added to the faculty with the appointment of Miss Charlotte A. Lowman, who received a B.A. degree in special education from the University of Southern Mississippi. Both teachers were accepted unanimously by the board.

Administrators for the 1973-74 term were approved by the board as follows: Donald Caldwell, assistant superintendent; Robert Magee, Sr., high principal; Frank Ladner, asst. high principal; W.J. Cameron, Jr., high principal; Billy Sills, North Bay Elementary principal; and A.J. Necaise, Waveland Elementary principal.

He took a swipe at the Daily Herald whose reporter's coverage story of the restocking appeared in the paper two days later. The way the story was handled, Ladner accused, created the wrong public impression "which made it look like something illegal was done."

The discussion grew more heated as Ladner said that the ponds, situated in Lakeshore area, are sources of natural drains for that part of the county and are accessible by public road as well as by water from the Gulf.

Although no prior mention had been made of the allegation, Ladner maintained that 62 arrests made by game wardens in the vicinity of the ponds were all for hunting violations, not for fishing in the ponds.

Ladner stated that although the Bayou Lacroix area where other fish were released was surrounded by private lands, there was no criticism of that action. Kellar answered that all public streams in the county are surrounded by privately-owned land, but they are neither fenced nor posted as are the ponds. He further stated that the Game and Fish Commission, regulation allowing stocking private ponds is under an entirely different program, dealing with federal fish.

Kellar said he was particularly upset about the situation as he had been informed that because of it the county would probably not get any more fish. Ladner said he had been assured by commission director Woods that the incident would not adversely affect Hancock County for future restocking.

Turning to Port and Harbor business, Dr. Michael Smith submitted several resolutions as well as the monthly claims docket.

Another fight erupted when Ladner refused to ratify the claims docket, saying he wouldn't agree to what he couldn't see or didn't know about. He called for individual copies of Port and Harbor submissions and was told by Smith that a power failure in the P&H office Friday had made individual copies impossible. Although Kellar gave Ladner the P&H papers to read, the beat one supervisor still refused to vote on any of the business.

County Roads

The board ratified a request by the commission for help in an appeal to the state highway department to dig a drain excavation through Bayou Marone, for relief of flooding in the Stennis Field area. The completion of Interstate 10 through that section has caused water to back up from highway ditches and the stopped up bayou, flooding the south end of the airport property, Smith claimed.

In other business, Game Warden C.J. Cameron approached the board to endorse a resolution from the Game and Fish Commission calling for state legislation to increase hunting and fishing license fees.

Increased operational and salary costs have necessitated a proportionate increase in revenues, the resolution stated. Kellar objected strongly to favoring the resolution as he felt hunting and fishing licenses are "too high now" and any increase would be unfair to sportsmen. The matter died for lack of a favorable response from the board. Consensus was that this was not a matter for county supervisors and should be handled at the legislative level only.

A motion was passed to instruct the county engineer to contact Don Ireland, beach road contractor, for a report on the Lakeshore Road project. The meeting was adjourned until March 6, when bids for additional county services will be opened.

Opening date for city schools may be unusually early this fall, McCullough told the board, to coincide with opening of the new Vocational-Technical School in Hancock County, which will be staffed and operated as an extension campus of Pearl River Junior College. City and county high school students will be attending the Vo-Tech college, McCullough explained, necessitating coordinating public schools' schedules to fit those of the college classes. A meeting of administrators from the three school systems is planned for the near future to work out an equitable timetable schedule, he added.

In other business, the names of two newly appointed teachers for the Title IV-A program were submitted for board approval. Mrs. Diane Douglas has been retained as speech therapist to work at all grade levels. Mrs. Douglas received A.B. and Masters degrees in speech therapy from the University of Alabama and has done graduate work toward a Ph.D. in learning disabilities at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge and Mississippi Southern University at Gulf Park.

jeweled in sequins, stones and rhinestones. A Siamese headpiece of gold sequins with gold tassels on the upturned points completed her costume.

Maid Chinese, representing the U.S.A.'s Feast of the Lanterns in Chinatown with echoes from San Francisco's Grant Avenue, was escorted by duke Vincent J. Schott. She wore a two-piece suit of purple and lavender peau de sole. Her Oriental overblouse featured a Mandarin collar with a heavily beaded dragon design on front and back. Her floor length straight skirt was outlined in silver and purple sequins and her headpiece was adorned with sequins, rhinestones and tassels.

Captain of the ball wore a costume of white lace embroidered with rhinestones and a wide, curved headpiece embellished with rhinestones topped with white feathered plumes.

The parade captain wore a gold lame costume featuring empire lines and a rhinestone hat with feathered plumes.

Krewe officers wore traditional Mardi Gras costumes in shades of purple, green and gold with green peau de sole capes trimmed with an appliqued crown in the back.

Krewe members entertained with stunts appropriate to each maid before her entrance.

Prior to the presentation of the 1973 reigning majesties, the Captain of the Ball announced the entrance of the 1972 Royal Court, recalling the exciting theme "Three Ring Circus," and as a prelude to some "Echoes of Famous Streets," the Crest of Nereids was lighted. This was followed by greetings from the Parade Captain who was escorted by the Parade Marshal.

Norris V. Fitzmorris of New Orleans served as narrator, and Doug Douglas, New Orleans, was choreographer. The Harry Morel Russ Pappalia Orchestra of New Orleans furnished music for the event.

Gowns worn by the queen and Ball Captain were designed and made by Carter Church; other costumes were designed by Edward Scallion of New Orleans and headpieces were by Sinoppe Williams of New Orleans.

Following the ball the queen's supper-dance was held in St. Clare's Costello Hall, Waveland, with Jay Heltzmann furnishing music for dancing.

Joseph V. Colson was general chairman of the ball and W. Ray Gordon, honorary general chairman.

Xavier Counselor To Visit Area

An admissions counselor from Xavier University of Louisiana will be recruiting students interested in careers in the health field in the Long Beach-Bay St. Louis area Tuesday, February 20.

He is James A. Simmons, who will visit Long Beach and Bay St. Louis High Schools. Simmons, who will talk with any qualified students interested in attending the New Orleans Catholic university in any field, will be especially interested in discovering minority students who have the potential and desire for health professions and allied health careers.

The Xavier recruiter states there is a dramatic need for more minority students, who are willing to train for careers in the health field and locate in rural and inner city areas upon completion of their training. In addition to upper level high school students, Simmons wants to discover military veterans, who are interested in careers in the health professions and allied fields.

The recruiter from Xavier University will discuss the varied careers available in the health field, appropriate secondary educational backgrounds and aptitudes, standards for admission to programs at Xavier, the academic support programs available at the university which will strengthen educational deficiencies of students entering health programs and financial assistance available to students who feel they cannot afford college and professional training. Xavier offers professional training in pharmacy, having one of the two pharmacy schools in the state. In the allied health field, the New Orleans university offers degree programs in medical technology and speech pathology, as well as pre-professional training in medicine and medical and health specialties.

With 45 years experience in preparing young men and women for health careers, traditionally black Xavier University, operated under a board, administration and faculty composed mainly of laymen, offers equal educational opportunities. It has been integrated for 25 years, and one-third of its College of Pharmacy students are now white. One-third of the university's overall enrollment is made up of non-Catholics.

Students interested in health careers should contact their guidance counselors in making plans to talk with the recruiter from Xavier University.

Diamondhead To Become Biggest Tax Source

"Diamondhead will soon become the biggest tax revenue source in Hancock County," George Heitzmann, county tax assessor-collector, told supervisors at a recent meeting when he presented figures for 1972 collections from the multi-million dollar development.

Heitzmann said he had received in excess of $65,000 in taxes that week from Diamondhead and that figure did not include private homes now occupied on the site. The county will realize considerably more than that for 1973, he added, from the condominiums and motel units now completed as well as the many private homes now under construction.

The following is a complete breakdown of the Diamondhead complex as Heitzmann presented it before a recent Rotary Club meeting:

The original tract comprised approximately 6000 acres in the Southeastern part of the County. The assessment of this cut-over land at the time of purchase was $40,000 or a total income to Hancock County of $3,800 per year.

The tract is being subdivided and will provide a total of 15,000 building sites plus apartment buildings and motel units. At the end of 1973 approximately one-third of the project will be platted and ready for development.

I have now completed my assessments for the fiscal year 1973 and will have 50 new dwellings, 80 motel units and 44 condominiums complete plus the sewerage and water system servicing these units.

Their current investments include: Country Club - $1,015,208.25; Golf Course - $17,477.93; Sales Lodge - $28,192.16; Condominiums - $187,218.54 (21 units-23 additions for 1973); Recreational Center Pool - $2,271.00; Riding Stables - $27,936.11; Pro Shop - $24,112.51; Holiday Homes (3) - $21,900.00 these are for sale; Equipment Storage - $20,294.32; and Model Home on Bayou - $17,703.15.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:
Autos - $37,500; Aircraft - $75,300; Club house fixtures and equipment - $8,500; Office furniture, fix. and equipment - $70,800; Merchandise - $49,700; Machinery, tools, equipment - $107,500. TOTAL - $430,400.00.

This total includes $27,796 of office equipment located at Hancock Bank and additional offices in Bay St. Louis.

The sewerage and water projects are projected through 1980 with an investment of 2.3 million per year. Only one unit is complete as of the end of 1972. Sewerage and water assessments will be added to the tax accounts as each unit is completed. The total assessment for the fiscal year 1973 is $1,057,811.00. The total income for Hancock County will be $74,046.77 for an increase in the first year of operations of $70,686.00.

It is anticipated that the 1973 assessment will be double that of the fiscal year 1972; 200 Condominium units are under construction and the projection is for 200 units per year through 1980.

I have no estimates on the Marina but from all reports this will have an investment of approximately 2 million.

All streets within the Project will be paved and each unit will be served with its individual playground and pools. At this point no dedication has been made to the County for streets, parks or playgrounds and it is not anticipated that this will occur before the end of 1975. The Project is presently self sustaining as to street maintenance.

Five Finish Course At St. Augustine's

Five Divine Word Missionary Brothers recently finished their final course in spirituality at St. Augustine's Seminary. Brothers Ken Valois, Dismas Bolte, Christopher Burkard, Tony Clark and Bernard Scherger took the five months' course required before taking final vows in the Society of the Divine Word at St. Augustine Novitiate in Bay St. Louis.

Brother Ken Valois, born in Chicago, Illinois, on April 11, 1936, entered the Society in 1963. He served two years in the army and eight years in industry as an apprentice and journeyman machinist. On completion of his studies at the University of Wisconsin (Stout), he earned a B.S. in Industrial Arts Education. Brother will be teaching industrial arts at the Society's minor seminary in East Troy, Wisconsin.

Brother Dismas (Jerome) Bolte grew up in Chillicothe, Illinois. After his graduation from the Chillicothe Township High School in 1964, he entered the Society of the Divine Word at Techny, Illinois. Upon completion of the two years novitiate program at Divine Word Seminary, Conesus, New York, he returned to Techny in 1967 as an accountant. He was graduated from the Milwaukee Technical College in 1972 with a major in business administration. Brother is now an accountant for the Northern Province of the Society of the Divine Word at Techny.

Brother Christopher Burkard joined the Divine Word Missionaries at Techny in 1964. Following his two year novitiate program at Conesus, he spent an additional two years in Minneapolis, Minnesota, majoring in automotive electricity. He is presently engaged in teaching automotive mechanics, coaching basketball and helping with maintenance of the Divine Word Seminary, Perrysburg, Ohio. Brother is also working for a degree in Industrial Education at Bowling Green University. His plans for the future include missionary work in Ghana, Africa, where he will teach automotive mechanics and work with youth groups.

Brother Bernard Scherger's home is in Fortoria, Ohio. He became a member of the Society of the Divine Word at Conesus, New York in September 1964. For the past several years, he has taught high school science courses at the Divine Word Seminary, East Troy, Wisconsin.

There was very little activity in the fishing, oystering, etc., line with snow all over the place for practically three days. It was the first snow since 1963 and was a beauty. Small ponds and lakes, plus the canals down by Bayou Caddy were frozen over.

Reminds me of the time (years back) when the canal at Henderson was frozen over and Bob Mitchell and I got 38 speckle trout that ran from 3 to 4 pounds that were frozen and on the ice with their bellies up. Bob used a pick axe handle to break the ice and I would paddle the boat to the fish. The speckles were all put in the kitchen sink and they came to life. Sounds fishy, but it is true.

At Norman Benigno's Liquor Store Saturday a bull session was held between Ken McCarty, Everett Peterson, Charley Prest, Norman and Yours Truly. More fish were caught, more quail were killed, more oysters were tonged. None were had to put on the table. The weather was cold, snow was on the ground and a pot belled stove was all that was missing. Beverages were a side line.

Ken McCarty reported catching five green trout in Fawn's Bayou one day last week. At the head of the bayou the water was clear (still murky however). Glad to know that these streams are beginning to clear up. Fawn Bayou is over in Louisiana just west of East Pearl River.

From past experiences East Pearl River and tributaries should provide some excellent bass and perch fishing after the rise has passed. Fish are brought down the river as far as from Jackson and migrate into our local streams. Pearl River proper has never been known to have been stocked. It is a natural stream for breeding purposes. Not only bass and perch but striped bass, sac-a-lait, mullets and fresh water cat fish.

One of our most popular pan fish is the bluegill. They are usually found in quiet streams and lakes. They run normally less than a pound but sometimes larger. The bluegill is a scrapper when hooked on a fly rod. Still fishing with earthworms is popular for catching them. For the fisherman's information those fishing Pearl River can fish both sides of the river with either a Miss. or La. license.

Was with sorrow that we read of the death of Clemens B. Georgi of Waveland. Mr. Georgi wasn't too much of a sportsman but had plenty friends hereabout. Sympathy is extended to the family. The same goes for John G. Garza, who died over the weekend.

Understand Bill Witter is living in Waveland. About time we get together Bill and do some fly fishing.

Bill Griffith tried catching some oysters and salt water fish last week. He said the tide was too low to get either. Bill does most of his fishing off Dunbar Avenue.

Understand plenty wild turkeys are being seen in the woods nearby. The season opens soon. There are a number of turkey hunters in Hancock County who have been enjoying this sport for years. Hunting turkeys is something different. Calling a turkey is an art. Wild birds are slimmer, darker, and more streamlined than domestic ones. Flocks roost in trees, feeding in early morning and late evening.

Richard Collins has a home in Jourdan River Estates. He is an ardent fisherman and does most any kind. He is no amateur when it comes to catching them.

Daniel P. Favre, T'bo, as he is most familiarly known does plenty fishing and hunting. You name it, he does it. Think his favorite past time is catching bream. Goes at every opportunity.

George Tartavouille is another of our local fishermen. He loves any kind. Fishes anywhere there is water. Also does some hunting.

Robins are becoming more and more plentiful each day. They must have come down with the last cold spell that moved into this section. They are classed as song birds and it is against the law to shoot them.

Local hunters will go back to fishing now that the hunting seasons are over. Most hunters are also fishermen. They go early and stay late. Usually find fish some time during the day. Someone said it's a shame we don't have more fishing time. There will be more when daylight saving time starts.

Will report when the barracudas at such bayous as Black, Mills and other tributaries that run into Middle and Pearl Rivers are removed. These are wonderful fishing spots when bass and perch are hitting. There are no better places anywhere where these fish are caught on the fly rod and by casting. Will be a little while yet until the water clears up. Pearl River is clearing gradually.

Lloyd Garcia is the man who will give us the go sign shortly. He is a swell guy to know.

Believe it or not there is some good bass and perch fishing right across the bridge at Bayou Portage and Bayou Delisle. Boats are available at the fishing camp on Bayou Delisle or better still there is a free launching place between Wolf River and the Bayou on the highway. Salt water fishing is usually good at Grassy Point, just around the corner. Speckle trout, reds, croakers, sheepshead can be caught. Give these spots a try, you won't be sorry.

Oyster boats were tied to their docks most of last week due to the terrible weather. No tonging going on. Should be on the job again by now.

Be careful when in the woods. Now is the time for forest fires. One match can destroy plenty trees, birds, and animals. Be a good sport and help protect our game.

Watched the golf match Sunday when Veteran Arnold Palmer won the Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic, and $32,000 first prize. Was he a happy man? Golf is a good game. Have been an amateur at it for 55 years.

Did you know that there was still some snow on the ground Monday in shady places?

The Selle family was in need of a new pickup truck, and they knew that the best place to shop was in his home town. They visited Turan-Lane Chevrolet and talked to salesman Vernon Bermond, whom they have known for many years. Vernon showed them the large selection of pickup trucks that Turan-Lane Chevrolet had in stock, and they selected one to their liking. Vernon worked up a price for them and it was what they wanted to pay.
